Greeters/ Bucket Brigade - May 17-19: Greeters are the “cheerleaders” for Roof Sit and the fight against child abuse and neglect. Bucket brigade will require some paperwork for donations over $50. They promote Roof Sit donations on site through prospective drive up donors. Hours are from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm (3 pm Saturday). Volunteer shifts are 2 to 4 hours.

Sign Spinners - May 17-19: We will provide you with the sign - you provide the energy and entertainment. Sign Spinners will walk along the sidewalk at the Roof Sit site, waving the sign, encouraging people to pull in and donate. Hours are 8:00 am to 8:00 pm (3 pm Saturday). Volunteer shifts are 1 hour each.

Kick-Off Dinner - May 17: The official kick-off dinner will feature a fabulous meal, live auction, and entertainment. This family fundraising dinner will be hosted on site at Roof Sit. Volunteers are needed to help wait tables and assist with the live auction. Hours are 4:30 pm to 9:00 pm. Volunteer shifts are 2 to 4 hours. Event times are from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm.

Tips for Kids (form available at roosit.com under the Tips for Kids tab) - May 17-19: Volunteer teams are assigned to one of the local Shell Stations and supported by a Station Captain. The task is simple: wash windshields and pump gas for tips- and lots of them!

Roof Sit raises money each year to support programs at The Community Healing Centers that treat and prevent child abuse and neglect in our community. These programs help over 2,900 children and their families every year! All money raised stays right here in southwest Michigan.
